

Comet Seki (1961 f)

Observer: Larry Anthenien

Location: San Jose, Calif.

Date: Oct. 29, 1961

Time: 4.20 P.S.T.

Telescope: 6" Reflector 48x

Transparency: 4 (Moon out)

R.A. 11h. 10m. Dec. +11.7° Magnitude 5.5 Size 4'

"The nucleus appeared somewhat more condensed in some areas. A central round part as that of the nucleus appeared like faint planetary nebula."

Copied by I.K. Williamson
Original on file Montreal Centre
R.A.S.C.