Updates on the December 2020 Journal

We have discovered a broken URL in the Journal. The URL in Blake Nancarrow's article had a broken link on p.282. This has now been fixed in the newly uploaded PDF.

Additionally, as a result of a recent motion approved by the Board of Directors, the Journal no longer requires a password to access - all issues from now on will be freely available to members and the public.

Thank you,
The RASC Journal team.
