FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3

8 — 7.36 0° 16° 5.34

9 — Bright and cold. The strong
 10 — sun seemed to be without any 11 — warmth. Dear Margaret 12 — Mitchell 1900-1949. You only 1 — wrote one book but it is
 2 — a good one, and a good long
 3 — one! I am learning a lot
 4 — about Georgia.

Kathleen got away before me for a permanent in St George. Sunny intervals and a bit milder. How little I remembered of "Old Curiosity Shop". No wonder I was spellbound by it in my student days. The only tale tragic and emotional enough to make dear Kathleen shed tears.

Winter is giving us a full measure of cold. Den came up yesterday morning in truck to cut wood. Lynne and Nancy followed in the ~~Cherokee~~ in the afternoon. They left at noon today leaving the red truck at John's - the original owner. Nancy accompanied me to church. Had a good rehearsal and a quiet T.V. evening at home. And radio too - don't forget the glorious triple concerto op 66

SUNDAY, MARCH 26

31° 6.40

- 8 — 22°
- 9 — About as wintry an Easter
- 10 — Sunday as we have ever
- 11 — experienced. Enjoyed The Brahms
- 12 — "Requiem" at the K.W. Collegiate
- 1 — Club evening. Spent a social
- 2 — hour at 153 Wilfred after.
- 3 — and brought Nancy home to
- 4 — Dumbo. Don and Lynne
- 5 — arrived at 6.15 and we enjoyed
- a lovely roast pork dinner.
- Had a cherry fire in the grate.
- Don Nancy left a note of
- appreciation on our pillow.

A fine day, gradually warming to spring temperatures. Kathleen planted peas last evening, and then lettuce and potatoes after breakfast this morning. I dug up the asparagus bed in the afternoon—a big job in the wet clayey soil riddled with couch grass. Marion and Enid came for tea and evening. The dear little dog "J.J." was the cynosure of all eyes. The five Taylor dropped in later.

The sprinkling started at 8:30 this morning and before noon a steady downpour developed which is still going strong at 5:00. No work outside this evening, but the ground soaking we have been wishing for weeks has actually come — a multi-million dollar rain! Kathleen was Katherine's bonded this morning and got away just after I did.

Only moderately warm. Last evening I cultivated only the sections of the garden where plants were set out. Our little seeds did not come up. Had the Friends family down this morning, all but Arthur. They are wonderfully healthy and clean.

MONDAY, AUGUST 7

8- 5.15 62° 73° 7.38

- 9- Spent the holiday in the 10- back and front yards and 11- the driveway. We trimmed the 12- front evergreens and cleared
 1- out around the front steps.
 2- Eric Ball and Ceily landed in 3- at 9.00 and of course we
 4- stayed up late.
 5-

TUESDAY, AUGUST 8

8- 5.16 61° 80° 7.36

- 9- After a little shower last 10- evening it turned hot and 11- muggy. Kathleen took the 12- girls to Simcoe but I was
 1- unable to go. Kathleen phoned
 2- about 5.00 o'clock to say they
 3- had just left for Toronto.

Mostly sunny with many rounded masses of Jumbo cumuli sailing in the summer azure. The "rounded looming masses" of August 1915, 1919 and 1926. What a day we had yesterday, driving down to Toronto in the rain, getting a parking place right in front of 16cinals, getting a parking place just below the Forum, having a clown to entertain us as we stood in line for the Cinemasphere, enjoying the Theatre 1. getting a good seat at the Forum where we ate a tasty lunch of ham, peas and salad and cookies

Everything worked like clockwork. We stopped at Sobloons on our way for milk, got to 710 N Shore B.E. at 7.30. Lynne drives us through all the clogging traffic arriving at the college at 11.00. Today was a busy one with water sking and shelling sand. A tremendous slack dinner late in the evening. The friends left for home, all but Karen, about 10.45. And so to bed.

9 — Brought in about 10 more
10 — little squashes. Kathleen had 11 — already harvested about a 12 — bushel. Tomatoes still a few
1 — ripening on the vines; no frost
2 — severe enough yet to hurt
3 — anything in our garden.
4 — Church and communion then
5 — lunch and Brentford.

A dull day is ending dark and gloomy with rain. The men were busy on our driveway as we got up this morning. I presume it is all finished now but we must stay off it for a couple of days. Quite a pile of windows wood and other junk back of the garage.

Probably as near like Indian summer as any day this fall.
Sunny, haze with high light drifting clouds. There were cakes of ice on the canvas covering the cabbages this morning. First mail getting through today.

The morning clouds blew away and the afternoon was sunny and a bit milder. Try to get home in time to do a bit in the back yard!

"The Cenci" is as wild and tragic as ever.

A busy day. First breakfast, then an hour in the garden spreading manure; then change shoes, and appear in church in good time to play piano with the organ. Broca Barberwell gave the anniversary sermon.AMPLE food downstairs afterwards. Then a scramble home to get our instruments and off to Brantford. A relaxed evening at home to end this eventful day.

Woke up in a winter wonderland about 7 inches of pines white on the ground and all trees and bushes lay with the night's snowfall. Dawn. Dredd in also David M.L. in his own car, all about 7:30. Had a fine dinner (Tenderloin) and all the trimmings. Opened up presents after.

Mostly fair and frosty. Went up to Galois for noon dinner and party leftovers which were very good, the walk up giving an edge to the appetite. Don, John, Nancy & J.R. in their rambling in the Jeep came across a body of a young man in a fairly new Chev truck — great excitement.

NOTES

MEMORANDA

Here, where the world is quiet,
Here, where all trouble seems
Dead winds' and spent waves' riot
In doubtful dreams of dreams;
I watch the green fields growing
For reaping folk and sowing,
For harvest time and mowing,
A sleepy world of streams.

I am tired of tears and laughter,
and men that laugh and weep;
of what may come hereafter
For men that sow to reap.
I am weary of days and hours,
Blown buds of barren flowers,
Business and dreams and powers and everything but sleep.

Here life has death for neighbour,
and far from eye or ear
Wan waves and wet winds labour,
Weak ships and spirits steer;
They drive adrift, and whither they do not know who make thither;
But no such winds blow hither,
and no such things grow here,

MEMORANDA

[Faint, illegible handwriting is visible throughout the lined area of the page.]

MEMORANDA

'Tis the last remnant of summer
Left blooming alone.

All her lovely companions
Are faded and gone.

No flower of her kindred
No rosebud is nigh
To reflect back her blushes
And give sigh for sigh.

I'll not leave thee, thou lone one!
To pine on the stem.

Since the lovely are sleeping
Go sleep thou with them,

Thus kindly I scatter
Thy leaves ~~on~~ the bed

Where they mate of the garden
Lie scented and dead

So soon may I follow, when

When friendships decay,
and from ~~Flower's~~ shining cereals
The gems drop away!

When true hearts are withered,
And fond ones are flown

Oh, who would inhabit
This bleak world alone?

MEMORANDA

Believe me, if all those enduring young
Which I gaze on so fondly today <sup>charms</sup> were to change by tomorrow, and flee in my arms.

Like fairy-gifts fading away
Thou wouldst still be adored.

as this moment thou art Let thy loveliness fade as it will and around the dear ruin, look with wish of my heart
Would intertwine itself verdantly still.

It is not ~~with~~ while beauty and youth are their own,
and thy cheeks unprofaned by a tear that the fervor and faith of a soul can be known

To which time will but make thee more dear.

No, the heart that truly loves never forgets,

But as truly loves on to the close,
as the sunflower turns on her god,
as he sets

The same look which she turned when he rose
